THE
PROTESTANT EPISCOPAL CHURCH
IN THE UNITED STATES
IN 1893

---

In presenting this little pamphlet to the notice of his fellow Churchmen, the writer earnestly hopes that it will meet with a kindly reception, and prove of interest.

While any one, so disposed, could have gathered the same facts, yet, as far as the writer's knowledge goes, it has never been attempted, in this form, and so he claims, at least, originality, though there may be no particular ability displayed.

There are, as a matter of course, some inaccuracies; it would not be possible to have it otherwise, such is the manner of making some of the Convention Journals. The Communicants are not separated, in many instances, and two, and often more Churches are connected by a bracket, and the communicants mentioned in gross. But by the "law of compensation," it is probable that, in the end, the Communicants belonging to each Church named, are in the main correct.

To those who have not looked into this matter, there may be some surprises. The writer has given the names of the Churches in every Diocese and Missionary District, except some in South Dakota, which will be spoken of, under that head, later on.

Where there are dashes [—] opposite a Church name, it signifies that no communicants are reported. There are scores of Missions with no names, as will be seen.

The writer believes that, as before mentioned, there will be some surprises. In the nomenclature of the Churches, it is a singular fact that there are but one of a name, in many instances, in the whole country. Take, for instance, "Church of the Advocate." While there are numerous "Redeemers," "Mediators," etc., there is but one of that name, and that is in Philadelphia; but one "Reformation" (Brooklyn), and so on.

The writer has taken a great deal from Whittaker's admirable Church Almanac for 1894, which, by the by, should be in the hands of every Churchman. A great many of the details have been culled from Convention Journals of 1893, and the writer hereby thanks those Secretaries, who have courteously sent their Journals to him.

To sum up, the writer has done the best he could with the data in his possession, and if any errors have crept in, he sincerely asks indulgence, for this little work has been written under most painful conditions, almost helplessness and nearly (and soon will be) total blindness. It has been written, too, in the hope, and with the most earnest prayers, that his fellow-churchmen will feel a hearty sympathy for one who, in this effort, is trying to bring aid and comfort to those dearest to him, and make his life, now drawing near its conclusion, end in peace.

CHARLES F. HURLBURT,

Brooklyn, August, 1894.

PART I.

DIOCESES.

There are, in the United States, fifty-three Dioceses, and seventeen Missionary Districts including Alaska.

The Dioceses will be treated of first.

Within the last twenty-five years there has been a great increase in their number.

The State of New York has now five (5); Pennsylvania, three (3); New Jersey, two (2); Maryland, two (2). Virginia, two (2); North Carolina, two (2); Florida, a Missionary District beside the old Diocese; Texas, two (2) Missionary Districts beside the old Diocese; Missouri, a Missionary District, in addition to the old Diocese; Ohio, two (2); Illinois, three (3). Michigan, two (2) also a Missionary District; Wisconsin, two (2); while Nebraska, Colorado and California has each a Diocese and a Missionary District; in the case of the State of Washington there are two Missionary Districts within its limits.

The General Convention of the Church is held triennially and consists of the House of Bishops, and that of the Clerical and Lay Deputies.

It is not the province of the writer to enter into any extended notice of the workings of the Church, except as he has commented upon the subject on treating of the several Dioceses. Suffice it to say that the Church has under its fostering care a vast number of Educational and Charitable Institutions, and that the members of the Church are among the most eminent in all walks of life, and that the Church is increasing rapidly all over this favored land, its Bishops and Clergy conveying the Gospel of Glad Tidings into its most remote sections.

With these preliminary remarks the writer goes into the details of the Dioceses.

ALABAMA.

ORGANIZED 1830.

Bishop, Rt. Rev. RICHARD HOOKER WILMER, D.D.Assistant Bishop, Rt. Rev. HENRY MELVILLE JACKSON, D.D.

This Diocese shows evidence of growth; its increase of communicants over 1892 being about one hundred

There are many Missions, and they are constantly increasing. Bishop Wilmer, on account of ill health cannot do as much as he used to do; but his able Assistant is a strong and able man, both in mind and body, and is doing great work.

Bishop, Rt. Rev. WILLIAM CROSWELL DOANE, S.T.D., LL.D.

This Diocese has grown with remarkable rapidity, under the fostering care of its able Bishop, upon whom has fallen, so worthily, the mantle of his eminent father, seconded by a hard-working clergy, and liberal laymen. The Adirondack region has been made, literally, to "blossom like the rose." Among those who have done much to spread the Church there, is Doctor E. L. Trudeau of Saranac Lake.

The increase in Communicants over 1892 is over fifteen hundred.

CALIFORNIA.

ORGANIZED 1850.

Bishop, Rt. Rev. WILLIAM F. NICHOLS, D.D.

This Diocese has been called upon to mourn the loss of its beloved Bishop Kip, who labored for so many years and built up this important charge. He died in April, 1893, and "his works do follow him."

Its present Bishop was his able assistant, and will follow in the footsteps of the good Bishop Kip. The increase of Communicants for 1892, is nearly eight hundred.

CENTRAL NEW YORK.

ORGANIZED 1868.

Bishop, Rt. Rev. FREDERICK DAN HUNTINGTON, S.T.D., LL.D., D.C.L.

This Diocese contained, until 1868, what is now the Diocese of Western New York—when it was divided—and the present Bishop elected, under whose faithful ministrations the Church has steadily grown and prospered.

The writer knew the late Bishop DeLancy well, and the good Bishop was often the guest at the writer's old home, in that Diocese. He died deeply lamented by all, and his memory lingers lovingly among them who knew him so well.

ORGANIZED 1835.

Bishop, Rt. Rev. WILLIAM E. McLAREN, D.D., D.C.L.

This Diocese, comprising, as it does the great city of Chicago, and adjacent counties, is one of three into which the State of Illinois is divided. This Diocese of Colorado was elevated to that dignity but seven years ago. The growth of the Church has been very rapid. ORGANIZED 1783.

Bishop, Rt. Rev. JOHN WILLIAMS, D.D., LL.D.

What shall be said of this grand old Diocese, the scene of the labors of a Seabury, a Jarvis, a Brownell and a Williams. It is a splendidly equipped Diocese, full of energy, liberty, and Churchmanship, whose clergy and laity stand so high. Bishop Williams, now Presiding Bishop, is instant in season and out; and his labors, and that of his Clergy, is shown in the increase of Communicants over 1892 of nearly one thousand. ORGANIZED, 1868.

Bishop, Rt. Rev. WILLIAM FORBES ADAMS, D.D.

This Diocese was originally a part of the Diocese of Maryland. It comprises, what is familiarly known, as the "Eastern Shore." It is small, in point of population, but is great in energy. No more devoted Churchmen can be found in any Diocese. Bishop Adams is very truly beloved by his people. The writer is much indebted to Rev. J. L. Bryan, the Secretary, for his admirably arranged Journal; and for his kind words of encouragement.

ORGANIZED, 1883.

Bishop, Rt. Rev. ALFRED A. WATSON, D.D.

This is a young Diocese, though part of an old one. It was formed from the Diocese of North Carolina. Its growth, perhaps, has not been as rapid as some others; but still the Church yields a great influence, and Bishop Watson is a man of ability and energy.

ORGANIZED 1838.

Bishop, Rt. Rev. EDWIN G. WEED, S.T.D.

This is another Diocese, whose population increased so rapidly that it was found necessary to form a missionary jurisdiction out of its Southern portion in 1892. Bishop Weed has shown great energy and administrative ability and the State of Orange Groves bids fair to be a large and an important one.

Bishop, Rt. Rev. CLELAND K. NELSON, D.D.

This Diocese has just passed its "three score and ten," and its usefulness and devotion to the Church grows with age. Under its able Bishop, there can be no going backward. As evidence of the truthfulness of the above remarks, the increase of communicants, over 1892, is more than one hundred.

INDIANA.

ORGANIZED 1838.

Bishop, Rt. Rev. DAVID BUEL KNICKERBACKER, D.D.

This Diocese, though showing but little change, in point of Communicants over 1892 is not going backward, under its good and wise Bishop. Indiana has been greatly blessed in its Bishops, having had the ministrations of Bishops Kemper, Upfold and Talbot. The writer enjoyed the acquaintance of the latter, who was greatly beloved, and sincerely mourned.

ORGANIZED 1859.

Bishop, Rt. Rev. ELISHA SMITH THOMAS, S.T.D.

The writer intends no irreverence when he says, that the "mantle of Elijah" (Bishop Vail), "has fallen upon the shoulders of Elisha" (Bishop Thomas), and very ably and worthily is it worn. This large State requires arduous and self denying labor, and that such has been the case is indorsed by an increase of nearly a thousand Communicants over 1892.

Bishop, Rt. Rev. ABRAM NEWKIRK LITTLEJOHN, D.D., LL.D.

Bishop Littlejohn, who has for a quarter of a century been at the head of this great Diocese, is greatly honored and beloved by his people. His labors have been most arduous, and he has well earned the rest that has been accorded to him, a years absence in foreign lands. The city of Brooklyn, now, having over a million people, is steadily increasing in its number of Churches, and the increase in communicants over 1892 is about nine hundred. ## MARYLAND.

ORGANIZED 1783.

Bishop, Rt. Rev. WILLIAM PARET, D.D., LL.D.

This Diocese, one of the oldest in the United States, is a very large one, both in points of parishes, communicants and contributions. The present Bishop, succeeded the greatly beloved Bishop Pinkney, who rested from his labors in 1883. The writer was honored by his acquaintance with Bishop Pinkney, and his death was a personal loss to him. Bishop Paret is one of the most energetic and devoted Bishops of our Church, and an increase of over twelve hundred Communicants in the Conventional Year, is ample evidence of the devotion of himself and Clergy.

MASSACHUSETTS.

ORGANIZED 1784.

Bishop, Rt. Rev. WILLIAM LAWRENCE, D.D.

This splendid Diocese stands third, as to contributions and communicants; and an increase of nearly sixteen hundred in the latter over 1892 shows how much work is doing for the Master. The late Bishop Brooks, whose death was so sincerely mourned, has been succeeded by one who brings most scholarly attainments to the work. The "Old Commonwealth" is in good and wise hands.

Bishop, Rt. REV. THOMAS F. DAVIES, D.D., L.L.D

Under the devoted labors of their wise prelate, the Diocese of Michigan increases steadily in Communicants; and it has been found necessary to take off a portion of its Northern part, as the Missionary Jurisdiction of Northern Michigan has been formed, and is at present in charge of Bishop Davies. The latter has been ably seconded by a devoted clergy and laity.

MILWAUKEE.

ORGANIZED 1874.

Bishop, Rt. REV. ISAAC LEA NICHOLSON, S.T.D.

This Diocese, so long the scene of the labors of the lamented Bishop Kemper, is growing steadily and healthfully, the increase of Communicants over last year being nearly two hundred and fifty. Bishop Nicholson was Rector in Philadelphia for many years, and has brought to his work fine talents and executive ability. Nashotah, which has trained so many young men for the ministry is located in this Diocese, and is still carrying on its good work of the cause of Christ and His Church.

MINNESOTA.

ORGANIZED 1857.

Bishop, Rt. Rev. HENRY B. WHIPPLE, D.D., LL.D.

Assistant Bishop, Rt. Rev. MAHLON N. GILBERT, S.T.D.

No more devoted Bishop than Bishop Whipple ever lived. He went out to this Diocese, has labored for thirty-five years and has built up the Church there to a remarkable degree of prosperity. His labors among the Indian tribes, are known, not only in the United States, but all over Christendom. The number of Indians he has brought to a knowledge of the Saviour, will never be known until the Great Day. He is now, not in the enjoyment of good health and many of his duties have fallen upon his hard working and devoted assistant. The amount of good Bishop Whipple has done cannot be estimated. The Indians love him and revere him. The writer is glad to pay this tribute to one whom he has known for more than thirty years. "Well done, good and faithful servant," will be the reward of this devoted servant of Christ.

Bishop, Rt. Rev. DANIEL S. TUTTLE, S.T.D.

This Diocese is a growing one, and the important city of St. Louis has many Churches. The present Bishop succeeded the late Bishop Robertson, who was greatly loved by his people. Bishop Tuttle is emphatically a working Bishop. The increase of communicants over 1892 is more than five hundred. It will be observed, that the ratio of contributions to each communicant is very large showing the liberality of the laity.

NEW HAMPSHIRE.

ORGANIZED 1800.

Bishop, Rt. Rev. WILLIAM W. NILES, D.D.

This is a small Diocese—the State of New Hampshire containing only about 375,000 population, and is not a growing State. But the Church keeps steadily increasing in strength, and the communicants for 1893 exceed those of 1892 by about two hundred. Bishop Niles has nearly filled out a quarter of a century since his consecration—and his acts speak louder than words.

The famous St. Paul's School, located at Concord, is known the world over as one of the very best. The Rev. Dr. Coit, has long been at the head of it, and many youths are trained there to be useful citizens.

NEW JERSEY.

ORGANIZED 1785.

Bishop, Rt. Rev. JOHN SCARBOROUGH, D.D.

What tender memories of the good Bishop Doane linger in the hearts of the people of New Jersey! Never will he be forgotten. He left monuments behind him, that will speak of his lovely and loving character. The institutions he founded in Burlington have a world-wide reputation. The present Bishop is well loved, and is eminently worthy of it. The increase of communicants over 1892 is about five hundred. This Diocese has many delightful cities and villages—the summer homes of thousands, and others that are winter resorts for health. Lakewood is already famous. Tender memories of a dear mother, resting there, awaiting the trumpet of the Archangel, make it sacred to the writer.

NEW YORK.

ORGANIZED, 1783.

Bishop, Rt. Rev. HENRY C. POTTER, D.D., LL.D.

It is hardly necessary to say, that this is the leading Diocese in contributions, communicants and the ratio for each. With nearly sixty thousand of the first, and almost three millions of the second, making the ratio nearly fifty dollars for each. What a grand showing this all is. The City of New York alone, having not far from one hundred Churches—Educational and Charitable institutions, fostered by the Church, abound; and the Bshop, whose talents are of the first order; the Clergy, famed the world over, and its open-handed laity, all conspire to make this Diocese, the great one it is, with an increase of sixteen hundred communicants over 1892, it shows great and energetic work. The writer has thought it proper in compiling the statistics to treat Trinity Church and its Chapels as distinct congregations, though awarding the highest meed of praise to the corporation of Trinity Church for extending such unbounded liberality, in building Chapels in various sections of the city, so that the poor may have free access to the House of God. Trinity and Chapels have a communion list of nearly seven thousand, but St. George's Church, as a congregation, has the largest in the United States numbering over three thousand.

OREGON.

ORGANIZED, 1889.

Bishop, Rt. Rev. BENJAMIN WISTAR MORRIS, D.D.

This far Western Diocese, away out on the Pacific Slope, is a flourishing one, and with its nearly twenty-five hundred Communicants (a gain of two hundred over 1892), under its faithful Bishop, the Church is gaining ground year by year. Comparatively a few years ago, the Church was scarcely known in these distant sections of the country, and now the Gospel is carried to all parts of this great land. All honor to those who have started and carried out this work.

Bishop Coxe is a scholarly man, one of the most accomplished writers, and, also one whose sweet poetry has charmed so many readers. One cannot pay too high a tribute to this good Bishop. ## PART II.

MISSIONARY DISTRICTS.

There are seventeen (17) Districts, including the far-off Territory of Alaska. Of the latter, the writer has no data ; so, of a necessity, that District must be omitted. The reader will bear in mind that the compilations are all made from the returns of 1893. These Missionary Districts each cover vast extents of Territory, as will be seen in perusing the details of the several Districts.

The Bishops and Clergy are men of Apostolic mould, carrying their work into the most remote sections and enduring privations, and making sacrifices no one can appreciate ; having their hope of a reward, not on earth, but beyond it. And they, and those who have preceded them (who have gone to their reward), will surely receive the welcome : “ Well done, good and faithful servant ! Enter into the joy of your Lord.”

The latest affliction which has befallen the Church in these far-off Districts, is the death of Bishop Paddock of Olympia, in the State of Washington. Under that head, the writer has commented further on this subject. The Church has made great strides, as the perusal of the several Districts, as given by the writer, will show. If the pioneers of, comparatively, a few years ago, could see the increase, they would exclaim : “ What hath God wrought ! ”

MONTANA.

Bishop, Rt. Rev. LEIGH RICHMOND BREWER, S.T.D.

This District comprises the State of Montana, and the Church is steadily increasing, under the faithful ministrators of its energetic Bishop. The parish at Helena, is a large one, and there are many growing parishes scattered over the state, all giving evidences of excellent work. The increase of communicants over 1892 in nearly one hundred.

NORTHERN CALIFORNIA.

Bishop, Rt. Rev. JOHN H. D. WINGFIELD, D.D., LL.D.

This District bids fair to grow into a Diocese, ere long. Bishop Wingfield has a large territory under his charge and that he is wise and energetic is shown by the steady growth of the Church.

Sacramento, the capital of the State, falls within his jurisdiction.

NORTHERN MICHIGAN.

Bishop, Rt. Rev. THOMAS F. DAVIS, D.D., LL.D. in charge.

Michigan has two Diocese, and one Missionary District. There are several flourishing Churches in this District, and (if the writer may be allowed to say so) Bishop Davies should be relieved of this charge. His own Diocese gives him all the labor that should be expected of him. Perhaps it may be better as it is, but time will show; over-work has ended the earthly labors of many a Bishop as well as of many clergymen.

NORTHERN TEXAS.

Bishop, Rt. REV. ALEXANDER C. GARRETT, D.D., LL.D.

This is another portion of the vast territory composing the State of Texas, and it is under the care of a Bishop of great courage, and ability. There are scattered over this District nearly forty parishes and missions, and they require the labors of many self-sacrificing missionaries. As will be seen below there are several large and flourishing parishes.

OKLAHOMA AND INDIAN TERRITORY.

Bishop, Rt. Rev. FRANCIS KEY BROOKE, S.T.D.

This District covers a territory of 51,000 square miles; and the labors of a Missionary Bishop cannot easily be estimated. There are but a few parishes or missions; and these far apart. Bishop Brooke brings energy to his work, which is one of great self-sacrifice.

The only Church of any considerable size is Trinity, Guthrie, O., with sixty communicants.

Contributions, $2,844.52; Communicants, 240; Ratio, $11.85.

OLYMPIA, WASHINGTON.

Bishop, vacant.

This District has just suffered an irreparable loss in the death of the faithful servant of God, Bishop Paddock. His people had become deeply attached to him; and he had built up the Church, in that far-away coast, to a remarkable degree. The Missionary District of Spokane has been formed out of a part of this District. The State of Washington will ere long, be one of the most important of our Western states. The cities of Seattle and Tacoma are growing rapidly.

SOUTH DAKOTA.

Bishop, Rt. Rev. WILLIAM HOBART HARE, S.T.D.

This vast District covers a territory of 80,000 square miles. It is divided into three Deaneries, Niobrara, Eastern and Black Hills. It is needless to say that Bishop Hare has his hands full, and every one knows that has looked into the workings of the Bishop and his missionaries, that they are performing their duties faithfully and devotedly. The Communicants are not given in detail in the Church Almanac, but the number is placed at 3,145.

The names of the missions are given, when they are the common nomenclature of Churches. There are quite a number of odd names which are not necessary to give, as it is not material.

SOUTHERN FLORIDA.

Bishop, Rt. Rev. WILLIAM C. GRAY, D.D.

This District was taken off from the old Diocese of Florida, and formed into a new Missionary District. The most important city is the flourishing one of Key West. Florida grows in population, and the Church intends to keep pace with it. With the energetic Bishop, the good that will result cannot be estimated.

The amount of Contributions is not given; nor are the aggregate communicants except in detail for each Church. They foot up 1,693.

SPOKANE, WASHINGTON.

Bishop, Rt. Rev. LEMUEL H. WELLS, D.D.

This, like Olympia, is a part of the State of Washington, and is about as large as the State of New York. The Church grows rapidly in those Western States. Bishop Wells, we hope will live to see a fine Diocese growing under his ministrations.

The communicants already number between four hundred and five hundred. The contributions are not reported.

THE PLATTE, NEBRASKA.

Bishop, Rt. Rev. ANSON R. GRAVES, D.D.

Bishop Graves has nearly 55,000 square miles of territory under his charge, and right well is he fitted for his duties. Over fifty parishes and missions are already carrying on the work, and, at no distant day, the number of Churches will be doubled.

The contribution are very liberal.

WESTERN COLORADO.

Bishop, Rt. Rev. WILLIAM H. BARKER, D.D.

The same remarks may be applied to this new District, as to the other new ones. The Church has grown so rapidly, that smaller Districts were a necessity. Nearly five hundred Communicants are given in detail; but no contributions are reported. Christ Church, Aspen, with 112 Communicants, is the largest. Bishop Barker has a large field to work in, and he has the talent and ability to work it well,

Bishop, Rt. Rev. JAMES S. JOHNSTON, D.D.

Bishop Johnston has a District, 110,000 square miles in extent, and over this vast territory, the churches are increasing in numbers, making his work exceedingly arduous. But he fulfills his duty nobly and fearlessly. The increase of communicants over 1892 is nearly five hundred.
